

Sail away

Music & lyrics Phil Walton © 2006

It's too late in the day
It's not enough to say I'm sorry
Here I'm looking at you
There's nothing left to say,
It's over
Make the pain go away
You said
There's hardly any point now
There's the door, go away
The minutes passing please go quickly

The taxi's waiting outside
Take the umbrella
See it's raining
The ferry's waiting for you
To take you sailing while you're sinking

Soon enough you will find
That you are better off without me
Maybe when you hit land
You'll find a different life to greet you
Sail away to another world
Fly away like migrating birds
Drive away to a sea of love
Then you'll find
What you've been dreaming of.
