

She walked

Music & lyrics Phil Walton © 2006

She walked along a path
She often passes by
She's been this way before
Nobody asks her why

She lived once upon a time
She dies each and every day
Unseen by a million eyes
She walks on along her way.

The spirit deep within
Is losing touch with us
Our dear departed friend
No value left for us

She lived once upon a time
She dies each and every day
Unseen by a million eyes
She walks on along her way.
